CHARITIES COMMISSION COMPLIANCE

To comply with the Charities Act 2005, members of the OUSA Executive must not be:

- an individual who is an undischarged bankrupt, or an officer who becomes disqualified after they have been certified. For example, if an officer becomes bankrupt part way through their term of office. [Dated: 27/2/12]
- an individual who is under the age of 16 years
- an individual who, or a body corporate that, has been convicted of a crime involving dishonesty (within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Crimes Act 1961) and has been sentenced for that crime within the last 7 years
- an individual who is prohibited from being a director or promoter of, or being concerned or taking part in the management of, a company under section 382, section 383, or section 385 of the Companies Act 1993
- an individual who, or a body corporate that, is disqualified from being an officer of a charitable entity under section 31 (4) of the Charities Act 2005
- an individual who is subject to a property order made under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988, or whose property is managed by a trustee corporation under section 32 of that Act
- a body corporate that is being wound up, is in liquidation or receivership, or is 'subject to statutory management under the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Act 1989
- in relation to any particular entity, an individual who, or a body corporate that, does not comply with any qualifications for officers contained in the rules of that entity.

I have read the Charities Commission Compliance and verify that none of these disqualifying factors apply to me. Also if I become bankrupt part way through my term of office I will notify OUSA immediately.

I have read the OUSA Election Policy and Election Rules, the OUSA (Part C) Constitution and Rules and agree to abide by these rules and policies.

I have also read the Executive Officer position descriptions and understand the requirements and time commitment necessary for the position for which I have been nominated.
